

Welcome!

WHO WE ARE

Partners Resource Network is the Parent Training Information Center (PTI) for Texas. We are funded by the Department of Education – Office of Special Education to provide free resources and training for parents of children with disabilities and self advocates.

OUR MISSION

To empower and support Texas families and individuals impacted by disabilities or special health care needs.

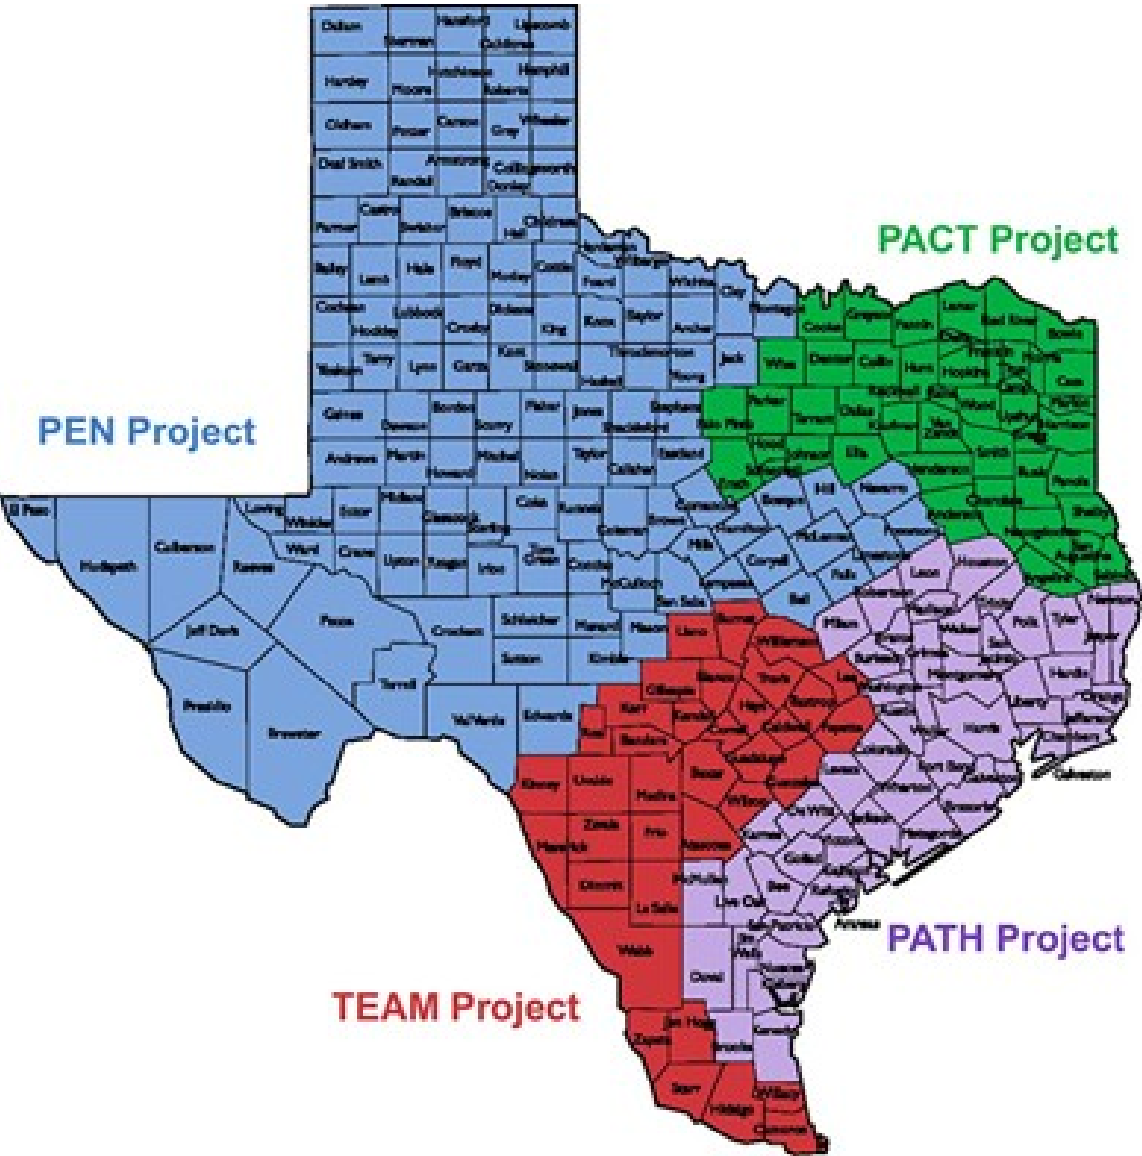

WHO WE SERVE

Parents of children and youth with disabilities from the ages of 0 to 26 as well as youth and self-advocates ages 14-26.

Partners Resource Network was first funded in 1986. It is now comprised of four projects: PATH, TEAM, PEN, and PACT.

We are THE Parent Training and Information Center of Texas

WHERE WE SERVE

Collaboration Opportunities

Partners Resource Network is always looking for organizations we can collaborate with to provide education and services to those we work with.

A large red circle is positioned on the left side of the slide, partially overlapping the white background. The text is centered within this circle.

Connecting Parents & Service Coordinators to PRN

There is no required process for referring parents to PRN. Service Coordinators are welcome to simply provide parents with the contact information for Partners Resource Network's staff.
